GRADS SIGN LETTERS OF INTENT NCHS Supplemental Signing Day

FORT WORTH – On Thursday, May 26, 2005, two NCHS graduates signed letters of intent to continue their athletic and academic endeavors at two universities: Andrew Montes signed with Texas A&M University and Nick Flaherty signed with St. Louis University both for men's track & cross country.

The two will take similar paths after high school Andrew Montes, of Colleyville, is the gold medalist in the 1600 (1Mile) and 3200 (2 mi) TAPPS 6A. He was also the state champion in Cross Country TAPPS 6A (October 2004) and plans to major in business. Nick Flaherty, of Fort Worth, came in third in the 1600 and third in the 3200 TAPPS 6A state track meet and plans to major in business as well.

Nolan Catholic High School is a college preparatory institution of the Diocese of Fort Worth administered in the Marianist tradition. It serves the mission of the Church by educating and forming youth in the Roman Catholic Faith. This is accomplished according to the characteristics of Marianist education: educate for formation in faith; provide an integral quality education; educate in the family spirit; educate for service, justice and peace; educate for adaptation and change.
