FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nolan Catholic Holds Day of Remembrance

Nolan Catholic High School recently celebrated its annual Day of Remembrance honoring deceased ancestors of the NCHS community including faculty, staff and others whose past contributions have added to the common good which the current community has inherited and enjoys today.

“The theme of the day was Salve Regina, Salve Mater, as we commend our faithfully departed to Mary, Queen and Mother,” said Kai Nemeth, NCHS faculty member and coordinator of the day’s events. The day included Mass in the school’s chapel, a breakfast following Mass, and reflective prayers said at the beginning of each class period in addition to regular morning and afternoon prayer.

White ribbons were worn by all NCHS faculty and staff as a symbol of remembrance.

Nolan Catholic High School is a private, co-educational college preparatory institution of the Diocese of Fort Worth administered in the Marianist tradition. Nolan Catholic was founded in 1961.
